

Indo-German Lab of LVPEI

Electrophysiological responses related to biological motion perception is normal after delayed bilateral congenital cataract surgery

Davide Bottari, Nikolaus F. Troje, Pia Ley, Marlene Hense, Ramesh Kekunnaya, and Brigitte Röder

The neural systems for biological motion processing, as indexed by electroencephalography, seem to fully recover after delayed bilateral congenital cataract surgery

Full text: DOI:
10.1016/j.cortex.
2015.07.029

